

Assessment Interpretation

Your organization scored 18.3 out of 30, placing you in the Dependable readiness band. Strong foundation present—ready to scale AI across multiple business units with focused efforts on governance and organizational change management. This assessment evaluates your organization's preparedness for adopting and rolling out AI at scale across six critical dimensions including process maturity, technology infrastructure, data readiness, people and culture, leadership alignment, and governance. The insights provided highlight your current capabilities and identify priority areas for advancement.

Note: These results are based on subjective assessments and does not necessarily serve as a substitute for AI implementation preparedness using a more thorough investigation of the organization's capabilities and performance.

Should say "do not"

This should say: Pg. 1/3, next page 2/3 and next page 3/3

I want these header titles on each page to be brighter orange
